

Please do not do anything to weaken State Telephone Privacy Laws. Indiana has a law which is working great. We receive far fewer annoying and irritating phone calls than before the law was enacted. Don't give in to business lobbyists which only want to start annoying us at home again.